OUR TOWN.

We Can Make It Better If We Try.

Louisa Citizens Should Get Busy and Boost Her Advantages, Which are Numerous.

Any place is just what the men who live in it make it.

Don't sit around and damn your town. A town is just as good or just as bad as the people who are damming it.

A town is seldom the result of virgin natural conditions. In any event it was man who saw the natural advantages—and frequently it was some one individual.

For illustration: There is no natural reason why Cleveland should have been the oil center of the world. There are no oil wells in or about the community. So far as oil is concerned, and as a shipping point, it is no better than a dozen and one other towns.

It was simply John D. Rockefeller. He wanted to live in Cleveland and his individuality, his personality, brought the oil to him.

There is no reason why Boston should be the shoe market of the world. There are no hides there. They are all shipped from the West. Simply some man who knew how to make shoes on a large scale wanted to live there and his success encouraged others to follow in his wake.

There is no physical reason why Chicago should be the meat-packing center of the world. It could as well have been St. Louis. Simply old Phil Armour wanted to live there.

In nearly every town you visit you hear some resident say: "Aw, this ain't nothin' but an overgrown country village!"

The resident of any town that makes such a statement wears whiskers and boots at heart.

Of course, if your town isn't sporty enough for you, why, you can move—that ain't the town's fault.

If you get too sporty, you'll have to move anyhow.

It isn't the sports that make a town—it's the jays.

The man that gave the light for the sports on the Great White Way was a jay—Thomas A. Edison. A jay telegraph operator from Indianapolis.

John D. Rockefeller, who, in a money way, is the ideal of every sport, was a jay from Richford, New York.

Russel Sage, who loaned money to the sports for years, was a jay—he started by jumping counter in a country store.

Some jay from Connecticut went to the World's Fair at Chicago in 1893. He set up a stand on the Midway and sold wooden nutmegs to the sports for souvenirs. Finally he ran out of wooden ones and sold them the real thing at twenty-five cents a throw.

William Dean Howells, America's foremost literary character, will take more pride in telling you of the days when he set type as a jay printer on the Sentinel at Ashland, Ohio, than his literary success of later years—the days when they used shoe pegs to space the type, and about a printer getting drunk and using a plug of Star tobacco for a cut.

Nearly every man in art, science, literature, industry and commerce here in America today either is or was a jay.

Cincinnati is the supply center of the South. Years ago, at the waning of the river traffic, it was about to give place to Louisville and Memphis in the commerce of that territory.

The citizens of Cincinnati got busy and built the Cincinnati Southern Railroad.

This road was the dream of a jay. They called him a jay dreamer, but his dream saved the town.

You hear people of the Far West in mercantile, industrial, artistic and scientific pursuits, saying: "If we were only in Chicago we could do or get so and so." In Chicago you hear them say: "If we were only in New York." When in New York you hear them wishing for something in London or Paris.

Chicago, New York, London and Paris are all the results of their citizens taking the conditions and material at hand and doing the best they could with them—just as we can all do.

There you are: Any place is just what the people who live in it make it.

If any of the towns that any of us live in are not to our liking, why let's get busy—it's all up to us.

The first process in the improvement of any town is to get rid of the people who are damming it.

Council Proceedings.

The city council met in regular session last Tuesday night. Mayor Burns and members Wilson, Hill, Wellman and Vinson present. The regular business was transacted, at which some new matters were discussed. The subject of dilapidated and new sidewalks was gone over and it was agreed to "go for" some property owners in earnest next month.

The tax to be collected this year amounts to $4219, the largest sum ever on the city's books.

It was ordered that printed notices be published and posted, ordering owners of dogs to call at the treasurer's office and settle at once.

The sum of $65 was turned in to the emergency fund, to be used in further work on the streets.

A Pleasant Affair.

Dr. W. B. McClure and daughter, Miss Martha, spent several days with Louisa relatives recently. During their stay Miss Martha gave a theater party at the Eldorado to many of her young friends. After the show she was also hostess for them at the Greek Cafe, where delicious refreshments were served. It was a very pleasant occasion.

SEVERE STORM.

Wrought Havoc Among the Trees of This Vicinity.

The intense heat of Sunday last culminated in the worst rain and windstorm that has swept over this section since the tornado of 1907. The day had been the hottest of the season, probably hotter than any day last summer, and the breeze and cooler temperature of the early night were hailed with delight by the many who had sweated and sweat during the daylight hours. But the pleasure soon gave way to apprehension as the wind grew and the rain increased. In a short time a storm raged which did a great deal of damage and caused much loss, fortunately without causing death or serious hurt, so far as we can learn, to body or limb. Fortunately the growing corn is too small to be hurt by wind, but the smaller grain must have suffered seriously. From all quarters comes the cry of great injury to fruit and shade trees. These have everywhere been uprooted, twisted, broken off and divested of branches large and small. Windows were smashed, chimneys blown down, and in some instances roofs torn entirely or partially off. At the Hammond place, half a mile or so below Fort Gay, the occupants must have thought that the end of all things had come. The house is in a bottom where the wind had a fair sweep, and it came pretty nearly sweeping it off the face of the earth. The building is a two story one, recently improved, and its front was ornamented by a porch nearly as long as that at the Brunswick. At the height of its raging the wind lifted this long porch over the top of the house into the back yard, quite a distance from the house, carrying with it a part of the roof. The residence was left in a condition better imagined than described. At the residence of J. Q. Lackey many of the stately old maples are ruins, and up and down Lock avenue and along the streets the passage of the Storm King has left its marks. At the J. C. Thomas place, the old Capt. Freese home, much damage was done. Nearly all the fine fruit and shade trees were blown down.

A Family Affair.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Q. Lackey was the scene of a pleasant family affair on Sunday last. The occasion was the reunion of all the children of the late Judge John M. Rice, with other relatives whose names will appear. The comfortable home is noted for a genuine Kentucky hospitality—good things galore and a hearty welcome, and on this particular day this feature was prominent and emphatic. All the longings of the inner man—and woman—were satisfied with the best of the season, the market and the house could afford, prepared and served to the queen's taste.

During the afternoon photographs of all present were made in various groups, to be kept and treasured as mementos of the delightful occasion.

Those present were Mrs. Ada Rice Thomas, of Cincinnati, Mrs. Ida Rice McConnel, of Catlettsburg, Mr. John M. Rice, whose legal residence is Louisa, and Mrs. Lida Rice Lackey, the children of Judge Rice; Mrs. John M. Rice, Judge James McConnel, of Catlettsburg, and Mr. James Q. Lackey, daughter-in-law and sons-in-law of Judge Rice, and Mrs. Reba Lackey Corns, of Kentucky river, and Junior Lackey, of Louisa, children of Mr. and Mrs. Lackey. Deep regret was felt because of the unavoidable absence of the other two children, Alex, of Los Angeles, California, and John G. of East Liverpool, O.

Work of the Postoffice.

By order of the Department Postmaster Hughes kept an account of the number of pieces of mail of every description which came into and passed out of the Louisa postoffice during the entire month of May. The count ended May 31, and the News gives the result: 28427 letters were sent out and 33396 were received. 2891 circulars went out and 6142 came in. 517 pieces of 3rd class matter went out and 647 came in; 4th class, 693 went out and 1913 came in. 696 pieces of franked matter were sent out and 987 came in. One foreign letter was received and none was sent out. There were 13 congressional and 3 other franks. 268 registered letters passed through in transit and 219 were sent from Louisa. The number of outgoing pieces at pound rates was 6417, incoming 19571. 245 magazines were sent out and 971 were received. Newspapers with postage paid, outgoing 266, incoming, 117, making a total of 94228 pieces handled during the month, or an average of 3036 per day. Forty-five years ago Louisa received one mail a week, the postmaster handling probably fifty pieces of mail on mail day.

Christian Women's Convention.

Rev. J. B. Artrip, Earl Peters, Thurman Felty, Watt Riffe, Cecil Wellman, Haskel Lee, Sheila Lee, Ethel Wellman, Lizzie Lee, Georgia Byington and Marie Byington, all of this city, attended the convention of the Christian Women's Board of Missions, recently held at Olive Hill. The delegation was accompanied by the Rev. R. B. Neal and the Misses Barbara England and Dewey Flannery, of Pikeville. The Louisa delegation attracted much attention. By the efforts of the delegates, Louisa was chosen as the 1912 meeting place of the Convention.

GOES TO CINCINNATI.

Arch McClure, of this place, has accepted a clerkship in the Palace Hotel at Cincinnati, and will enter upon his duties in a short time. Arch is quite a popular hotel man and will get a lot of Big Sandy business for the Palace. He has given the public satisfactory service as manager of the Brunswick and his departure will be regretted by Louisa people.

LEVI EDWARDS DEAD.

Levi Edwards, a well known citizen of Williamson, was instantly killed Monday night just east of Deborne by a train. The body was cut to pieces. Mr. Edwards and a friend had spent the evening on the Kentucky side of the river and Edwards started home first. The other man found his mangled body several hours later.

OUTSIDERS

Watching the Senatorial Fight in Kentucky.

James Suffers in Comparison With Paynter as Big Newspapers View the Two Candidates.

Frankfort, Ky., June 8.—The big newspapers of the country are watching with a good deal of interest the fight being waged in Kentucky between United States Senator Thos. H. Paynter and Congressman Ollie James for the seat in the Senate now so capably occupied by the first named, and their comment on the methods of Mr. James in his campaign should be of interest to the Democratic voters as giving them an insight into what the people of other states think of the man and the character of contest he is waging, as well as giving their opinions of Paynter as a statesman and member of the Senate.

In a recent comment, Leslie's Weekly said of James:—"It is too bad that we have so many of the Ollie James type in our legislative bodies—who think there is nothing in the world for a public man to do but to seek to gain political advantage, to capture votes and to attract attention."

The Chicago Inter-Ocean, discussing the Lorimer case, says: "That Senator Paynter should appeal to his colleagues to act as judges, considering the law and the facts only, and disregarding alike the clamors of faction and the menaces of party, is entirely natural when we remember the life and character of the man."

A Washington dispatch to the Cincinnati Enquirer, at the time the "long and short haul" railroad proposition was before the United States Senator a year ago, read:—"Senator Aldrich was completely routed upon the long and short haul proposition in the open Senate this afternoon. By a vote of 57 to 19 the Paynter amendment, declaring it unlawful for a railroad to charge more for a short than for a long haul was adopted." This is the same Mr. Aldrich with whom Congressman James would have Kentucky Democrats believe Senator Paynter is in league.

Another Washington dispatch, this time to the Louisville Courier-Journal, relative to the Employers' Liability Amendment, introduced by Senator Paynter, which provides that no case arising under this act and brought in any state court of competent jurisdiction shall be moved to any court of the United States, says:—"The adoption of this amendment is regarded as of great importance, because it is a step toward restoring to the states the rights and control of matters which have been claimed by the Democrats to be the rights of the states under the Constitution. Heretofore efforts to modify Federal laws so as to give state courts jurisdiction of matters arising under acts of Congress and to change the law as to removal of action from State to Federal courts have been ineffectual."

Of Senator Paynter's work in securing this amendment, Senator Hale, long a leader in the upper branch of Congress, said: "This is a noteworthy advance in the direction of maintaining the constantly dwindling force to State jurisdiction and State control. I congratulate the Senate upon having taken the first step in the right direction."

Jno. Callan O'Laughlin, one of the brightest and best known newspaper men at the National Capital, recently reviewed Senator Paynter's brief career in the Senate. At one point he wrote:

"When Paynter arrived in Washington he quickly made himself felt in the Senate Chamber and was given an honor extended to few new Senators, being placed upon the important Judiciary Committee. The Senator has been active in connection with the tariff, the railroad rate, the postal savings and the Federal Incorporation bill. He strongly advocated lower duties on all materials used by the press, insisting it was important to the Nation that independent newspapers should flourish. He also has shown a marked knowledge of international as well as ordinary law. In short, he is regarded as a valuable addition to the United States Senate."

The foregoing gives in brief fashion, the opinion from outside Kentucky of Senator Paynter's worth as a member of the Federal Senate from Kentucky, showing that, from his first, he has taken front rank among the leaders of thought in the Nation, and is today in position where he can accomplish much, if retained in his position, not only of benefit to the State and Nation, but add to the luster of Kentucky, which has furnished many of the country's greatest statesmen.

Her Birthday.

Miss Anna Mary Miller was three years old June 6th, 1911. On this occasion, which, unfortunately, will never occur again, Emily Gene Herr, Caroline Burns, Louise Miller, Catherine Carey, Wirt Ballard, Curtis Vaughan, Arthur Justice, Blanche May Bromley and Jim Ferguson put on their best bibs and tuckers and marched and were trundled to the scene of natal day festivities, ready for the feast and the frolic. It was a good looking bunch, one that would attract admiring attention anywhere. It was a typical function—decorations, favors, refreshments, presents—all in excellent shape. All the guests were too full and some too young for utterance, but they all seemed to fully enjoy the occasion.

Have Gone to Graham.

Mrs. Vic Prichard and Virginia Hager went to Graham, Va., on Monday last, called there by the critical illness of Mrs. Prichard's brother-in-law, Mr. Tate Greaver.

WOMEN LIVE LONGER.

Both General and Local Statistics Show Men Dying Younger.

Touching the subject of the greater longevity of women as compared with the length of life of men the following clipping sent with a personal letter to the News by Mr. B. F. Thomas, of Cincinnati, is pertinent and interesting. With his letter Mr. Thomas also sends the names of old residents, men and women, and the names of the men who preceded their wives to the Great Beyond. Here is the clipping, and Mr. Thomas' letter and list follow:

Why Women Live Long.
Not because women naturally "want to have the last word," but because they require less oxygen than men, and so can stand more heat and a more rarefied air, because they suffer less from anaesthetics and are also more likely to survive hanging; because rigidity of the thorax and hardening of the arteries begin earlier in men than in women; because they have more power to endure suffering and resist disease, and because, in general, women are "physiological misers" while men are "physiological spendthrifts." are the main reasons given by Dr. A. H. Stewart in the Medical Record why there are more female than male centenarians.

The weaker sex is the more tenacious of life. There were about 4,000 persons over 100 years of age in this country, as reported by the census of 1890—about 2,600 women and 1,400 men. Statistics of other countries show about the same ratio.

In every community there seem to be more widows than widowers, and perhaps an explanation of this phenomenon may be found in the more pronounced tendency to longevity among women than among men. Another point, which the learned physician does not discuss, is the question whether woman's industrial and economic efficiency is prolonged to a later period in life than man's.

Cincinnati, O., May 31, '11.
I enclose a clipping which brings to mind a thing I have often mentioned when riding on the train between Louisa and Catlettsburg, and which it might be interesting for you to investigate a little further than I have. When I came on to the Chattahoochee about 32 years ago, I was thrown into association, more or less intimate, with the farmers along the route of that crooked railroad and I have, in a way, kept track of many of these people ever since and it has always been a mystery to me why, as a rule, the men die before the women do. You are familiar with the old wagon road, and if you will first allow your mind's eye to travel it again, slowly, you will find about 20 men who died before their wives, about 4 whose better halves preceded them to the Great Beyond. I enclose a list as I make it up from memory, but it is not guaranteed as absolutely correct, and I hope you will verify and enlarge it if it interests you.

Men died first: Capt. M. Freese, John Friend, Wm. Fulkerson, Jake Rice, Dr. McGuire, Mr. Whitt, Mr. Calmes, Wm. Blankenship, Jr., James Hewlett, O. Fuller, Ed Smith, Mr. Darney, Strocher Burgess, Stephen Cursutt, Mr. Turman, Joe Wright, Lewis Prichard, Joe Powell, George Burgess, Wm. Moore, John Lockwood. Those surviving their wives were: P. L. Scaggs, Lefe Kinser, Pick Lockwood and John Ewing. I can't say as to John Smith, Ransom Hatfield, Reese Bryant, B. F. Johnson, Jim Vanhorn, Jesse Cyrus, John Riddle, J. M. Finney, Wm. Prichard, Bud Newman, John and Sam Turman, J. F. Hatten, Charley Warren, Jake Compton, Jim Stump, the Leakin brothers, Oliver Buchanan, Evan Burke, Jim Burke, Cord Leffingwell, "Old Ped" Frank Maynard, Mr. Potter, Smith Crabtree, and a man named Wellman who lived at Fulkerson branch. Many of these, most of them probably, are still alive.

Prestonsburg too Tame.

Two young girls from Prestonsburg, by the names of Burchett and Stone, came to Ashland on O. and N. S. train No. 37 this forenoon; and it developed that they were bound for Alger, O., having run away from home. They had grown tired of prosy life in Prestonsburg and wished to get out and see the world. The Stone girl had never been on a railway train before; in fact, had never been outside her home town before.

But they got "cold feet," after sitting around the depot for awhile, even though they had already bought tickets for South Ports mouth. They told Agent Irwin they had changed their minds, so bought tickets for that dear Prestonsburg and returned home.—Ashland Independent.

Ran Amuck.

Frank Rouse, of Normal, was the central figure in a setto on a down bound Ohio Valley Electric Railway car, Saturday night.

It is said he was under the influence of liquor, and grew boisterous and quarrelsome. When admonished by the conductor to keep quiet, Rouse grew frenzied, and, drawing a murderous looking knife, began slashing right and left, as a result of which three men were wounded.

SHOOTING IN ASHLAND.

Glen Wells, of Ashland, who is characterized as "a young fellow about town," used his "gun" with fatal effect in that city about noon last Sunday. The affray occurred on 15th street, between Front and Greenup avenues. As a result of his bad whisky and good aim Chas. Holland, of Ashland, is dead, Will Frank, also of Ashland, is perhaps fatally wounded, and George Justice of Ironton, is slightly wounded. The pistol user is in Boyd county jail, awaiting on examining trial. Ashland is supposed to be a very "dry" town, but all these parties were more or less drunk. Young Frank is a son of policeman Coon Frank, who was shot and killed a year or two ago by Bob Hammond.

ITEMS OF INTEREST FROM MANY STATES

Important News Gathered from Abroad for the Benefit of Our Readers.

Juan Gatan, a Texas soldier, died in the poorhouse at San Antonio, Texas, at the age of 103 years.

It was reckoned in Wall street that the trading in American Tobacco shares showed a shrinkage in value of $102,000,000.

Gen. Porfirio Diaz, recently President of the Mexican Republic, departed with his family from Vera Cruz, Mexico, for Spain.

Several hundred well armed Yaqui Indians have gathered in the Yaqui River and in Mexico and are demanding the restoration of their lands.

Provisional President de la Barra, of Mexico, has issued a special decree calling for a presidential election throughout Mexico on October 1. Electors chosen at the election will select a successor to former President Diaz.

The Ohio Legislature adjourned after a record session as to length and as to the trapping of several members in grafting charges. Three members made themselves conspicuous by drinking from a champagne bottle in full view of the House and galleries.

The United States Senate by a vote 45 to 20 decided to reopen the Lorimer bribery and corruption charges. The inquiry will be conducted by a subcommittee of the Committee on Privileges and Elections according to what is regarded as the latest thing in jury procedure.

The placing of a naked human corpse on the piano stool in the chapel of Alfred, N. Y. university so up set the faculty and student body that the program prepared for the last day of the college year was postponed. Students were suspected, but the faculty was unable to get any definite clue. The corpse was stolen from an undertaker's store.

Attorney General Wickersham was given a severe grilling by the House Committee on Expenditures that is investigating the different governmental departments. Representative Cantrill, of Kentucky, asked Mr. Wickersham why it was that so much energy was displayed by his department to convict Grant county tobacco growers under the anti-trust law while no attempt had been made to present criminally the American Tobacco Company.

Allentown, Pa., May 30.—At the greatest sale of Jersey cattle ever held either in Europe or America conducted today by T. S. Cooper at his Linden Grove farm at Coopersburg, near here. J. B. Haggins, of Lexington, bought the king of the herd, "Noble of Oaklands," for $15,000, the record price for a Jersey bull. To top the climax Mr. Haggins an hour later paid another record price, securing "Lady Viola," the queen of the herd, for $7,000, against sharp competition. This is said to be the highest price ever paid for a Jersey cow. Lady Viola is the mother of Noble of Oaklands, and the $22,000 paid for the pair exceeds by $6,000 any price heretofore paid for a brace of Jersey cattle.

One night last week some of the Fletcher boys of Pine branch, below here, caught and killed a regular South American armadillo. No doubt about it being a surcoy enough armadillo. Look in your geography for animals of South America, you will find the picture and description of said animal. This one was of the feminine gender, and from appearances had previously raised a family. Na animal of this type was ever seen or heard of in this country before.—Columbia News.

Eminence, Ky., May.—Eminence boasts today of perhaps being the only city in the country that witnessed the unusual Decoration day parade composed only of negro survivors of the Union army, marching behind a brass band of their own color, and also behind two boy flag-bearers who proudly bore Confederate flags. "Uncle" Bob Franklin, 70 years old, and the youngest soldier in line, was marshal of the parade. He is commander of the local G. A. R. chapter. It was impossible to determine to-night whether the death of "Old Glories" in this section caused the use of the "stars and bars," or whether the Confederate flags were carried as an expression of unity. The latter solution seems to meet with favor.

Miss Theresa Fried, of Newport, mourned the death and attended the funeral of her sweetheart. Then she doffed the mourning garb and put on the wedding gown and wedded the man whose funeral she attended. This is how it happened: Last winter, a body identified as Paul Mauer, of Newport, was found on the railroad track at Maysville. It was turned over to relatives who interred the remains in Evergreen cemetery at Newport, and Miss Fried, Mauer's sweetheart, was the chief mourner. The day following the funeral Miss Fried received a letter from Mauer, who was in Chicago and very much alive. The body was disinterred and proved to be that of a young man from Bath county. Miss Fried and Mr. Mauer were married at the home of the bride in Newport, and the only cloud on their happiness is the fact that another funeral is due them at some future time.—Dover News.

Alcohol and the Death Rate.

In 1880 the per capita consumption of alcoholic beverages in the United States was 10.05 gallons. In 1909 it reached 21.80 gallons, an increase of 117 per cent.

Since 1880 the death-rate in the Registration States from degenerative diseases in which alcohol is conceded to be an important causative factor, has increased 104 per cent.

That alcohol is the sole, or even the chief cause of this increase cannot be authoritatively stated, but that it is a powerful factor is undeniable.

It is worthy of note that although the use of wines has increased only 25 per cent, and spirits 7.9 per cent, malt liquors show an increase of 139 per cent. Evidently beer is not so harmless a beverage as some people imagine.

The strain of modern existence is beginning to tell. While gross intemperance is being more and more condemned, tipping and social drinking among the masses would appear to be increasing. Possibly the nervous excitement of American life increases the desire for what we call a "stimulant," but what in reality is a depressing narcotic—a "deadener," instead of a "bracer."

A hopeful sign is the growing tendency to abstinence among the leading men and women of the Nation. A reform commencing at the top, will progress more rapidly, because of the powerful influence of fashion. When it becomes odd to drink, fear of public opinion may make for temperance more surely than fear of moral or physical injury.

Alcohol weakens the resistance to disease. In acute illnesses—grippe, fevers, blood-poisoning, etc.—substances are formed in the blood termed "anti-bodies" which antagonize the action of bacteria, facilitating their destruction by the white blood-cells, and neutralizing their poisonous influence. In a person with "good resistance" this protective machinery, which we do not yet thoroughly understand, works with beautiful precision, and the patient "gets well."

Experiments by scientific experts have demonstrated that alcohol restrains the formation of these marvelous "anti-bodies."

Alcohol puts to sleep the sentinels that guard your body from disease.

Policyholders are warned against advertisements extolling the value of whiskey in disease. The callous cruelty of such advertisements lies in the fact that they appeal to the very people who are most injured by the use of alcohol—sufferers from rheumatism, chronic kidney disease, nervous subjects, etc.

There is no such thing as a "medicinal" whiskey. One pure whiskey is as good (or as bad) as another. Do not take alcohol as a remedy except on the advice of a thoroughly up-to-date physician, who is free from prejudice. — Medical Dept. of a Life Insurance Co.

TUSCOLA.

In Memory of Edgar French.

On the 19th day of April, 1911, after a lingering illness of several months, caused from measles, he stepped from the stage of action into the realm from which no traveler has ever returned. He was a consistent Christian and fell asleep being weary of life. He loved the beautiful and his aspirations were that he might rise above the struggling mass and be a true and loyal citizen of his country and a blessing to his community. He acquired a good education and taught school. He often repeated what Horace Greely said, "Go West, young man, and grow up with the country." His heart was set on the west and in the spring of 1908 he went to Cherokee, Okla., where he found employment and being enraptured with life he went to Texas where he engaged in concrete work. He soon found that there is more room at the top and he resolved to go to the top. He commanded the respects of his fellow workmen, and was soon a leader amongst them. In the full of his manhood when hopes were brightest he contracted measles which resulted in his death. He left the "Star of the West" and came home last September in hopes of regaining his health, but such was out to be. He bore his suffering patiently and often said that he was ready to meet his Savior. He is gone, but not forgotten.

He had reached his twenty-third milestone, before he threw off his mantle to put on a robe of righteousness. Peace to his ashes.

NOTES OF THE FARM.

COLUMN OF INTERESTING NEWS THAT WILL BENEFIT FARMERS.

With the Live Stock.

Take no chances with an old boar; always keep behind him.

Pigs that are apt to have "differences of opinion" should be separated. Fighting takes off flesh.

There should be placed in every pig yard and pasture a box with salt, charcoal, air-slaked lime, bone-meal and hardwood ashes, so the pigs can help themselves at will.

Hogs do not dig in the earth altogether for the fun of it. They get a lot to eat that way—grass roots, worms, bites of stuff of different kinds that help to make bone and muscle.

Horses with good dispositions are always safer and more valuable. Never breed a crazy-headed mare.

Raise the type of colt that sells best in your community. Select the sire and dam that will bring this type of a colt.

Do not let the little colt follow the dam while she is at work. If the dam becomes heated the milk is injurious to the colt.

If a colt is worth raising at all he is worth raising well.

Diseases get a fast hold of many a flock of sheep through foul drinking water. Never give stagnant water if you can help it.

A few trees in the pasture add greatly to the comfort of the sheep, these days. If you can't have them, set up a few posts and cover a bit of ground over for a shed.

To dip the flock the first warm weather is good practice, as this spurs the lambs. Any one of the carbolic dips is good. This poison destroys the tick and scab parasites by contact on the outside.

The Poultry Yard.

These are gala days for lice. Fight them strong and hard.

Kerosene will do admirably work. Pour it in every crack and crevice. Don't spare it.

Watch the grit box. The hens are doing so. Don't let them catch you napping and the box empty.

Allow the cool air to enter the houses at night by taking out the windows, but do not forget to have inch-mesh wire netting fastened to the opening to keep out the enemies.

Watch the condition of the young chickens. If they are moping, look for lice, especially the large gray louse found on the head of the chick. A drop of sweet-oil will soon end his career.

Gumption on the Farm?

Named your farm yet? Any shade in the pasture? Why not?

If you want to kill weeds, cultivate or hoe them when the sun shines hot.

The trouble with the honey-bee is that it doesn't carry honey at both ends.

No, lime is NOT good for potatoes; it favors scab. So does too much stable manure.

Now, please, don't let the mower rattle all to pieces. Keep it well oiled and every nut screwed up tightly, and don't let the knives or guards get dull.

Remember, brother farmer, that the hot weather and hard work tax the strength of your wife. She will enjoy going to the store with you and riding slowly home in the cool of the evening.

To keep moles from a bed, sink a close-mesh wire netting a foot wide into the soil around, allowing it to extend about two inches above the surface. If you have no netting, use boards. Either will prevent the entrance of moles into the bed.

The harvest season is the most trying of the year. There is so much to be done, so little time to do it in, and so few hands to accomplish it, that we are often at our wit's end. Let us, however, have a care lest we attempt too much and lest we put too great a burden upon the wife and daughter. The sanitariums are filled with men and women who have broken down from work and worry at middle age. The utmost that we can hope to gain is not worth such a fearful sacrifice.

Orchard and Garden.

Keep the fruit of strawberries cool until the time to use or market them. Never pick berries for market when they are wet.

Beware of "red rust" in blackberry or blackcap bushes. When seen promptly dig up and burn the infected plant, being careful not to scatter the fungous dust over healthy bushes.

Muzzle the horses when plowing or cultivating the orchard. Yes, and pad the whiffletrees. These precautions will prevent much damage to trees. Another hint: Pad the outer edges of the harrow.

No grain or grass crops in the young orchard, please; cultivation is best. Stir the soil every two weeks until August. It is a good plan to throw two or three forkfuls of manure around each tree, after a rain.

Watch for the little slugs—darkish, slimy fellows—that are likely to be on puer or cherry leaves now. Fine, dry dust, if thrown in the trees, will kill every slug it covers. Or almost any of the regulation orchard sprays will exterminate this pest.—From June Farm Journal.

IN MEMORY.

On Thursday morning, May 4, 1911, our Heavenly Father came forth and called to himself our dear beloved companion and mother and friend, Cora D. Queen, wife of J. C. Queen, of Garner, Ky. Cora was a daughter of John and Sarah Prichard, of Bolts Fork, Ky. She was a good woman, a good wife and a noble mother, she was born Feb. 7, 1872, at Bolts Fork. She suffered with that dreaded disease consumption. Everything was done for her that human skill could do, nothing could save her. God said she had stayed here long enough. She suffered so much, but thank God she is free from all pain and suffering now, but why she was taken from her husband and children we cannot tell, but we know the Lord hath need of her and he called her home, where parting will be no more. She is another tie to bind father and children brother and sister on to God. She was the mother of four children, two boys and a sweet little girl. Her oldest son, Ray, was called from Richmond where he was attending school to come home to help wait on her. Ray's friends will never forget him for his kindness toward his mother, for he was so good to stand by her and lend a helping hand. There was never a mother more beloved by her children. She was not neglected neither day or night and while they mourn the loss of a mother here, let them look to God and trust Him, one who can always help in the hour of trouble. Cora was a true Christian and died in full faith of a living God. She often told us she was ready to go and only waiting His call. There was no fear no doubt no dark river to cross. It is a grand consolation for the husband and children to know where she is. I will say to them, prepare yourself to meet her in Heaven. Funeral was preached at Garretts Chapel, by Bro. Leslie, after which her body was laid to rest in the Buckley graveyard. A large crowd of relatives and friends gathered there to witness the last sad sight of her.

—Lizzie Queen.

Do You Feel Thispondency

Do you feel all tired out? Do you suffer, the think you just can't work away at your disorders and aches or trade any longer? Do you have a poor appetite, and lay awake at nights unable to sleep? Are your nerves all gone, and your stomach too? Has ambition to large ahead in the world left you? If so, you might as well put a stop to your misery. You can do it if you will. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery will make you a different individual. It will set your lazy liver to work. It will set things right in your stomach, and your appetite will come back. It will purify your blood. It will set your tendency in your family toward consumption, it will set your tendency toward destruction away. Even after consumption has almost gained a foothold in the form of a cure in 98 per cent. of all cases. It is a remedy prepared by Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., whose advice is given free to all who wish to write him. His great success has come from his wide experience and varied practice. Don't be wheedled by a penny-grabbing dealer into taking inferior substitutes for Dr. Pierce's medicines, recommended to be "just as good." Dr. Pierce's medicines are of known composition. Their every ingredient printed on their wrappers. Made from roots without alcohol. Contain no habit-forming drugs. World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y.

Sandy News

ed at the postoffice at Louisa, Ky., as second-class matter.

Friday, June 9, 1911.

We are authorized to announce that R. C. McClure, of Louisa, Lawrence County, is a candidate for Representative in the Ninety-eighth District of Kentucky, comprising the counties of Boyd and Lawrence, subject to the action of the Republican District Convention, date for the holding of which has not yet been fixed. YOUR SUPPORT EARNESTLY SOLICITED.

The Paintsville Herald kindly drops us a hint. It says we are not giving enough attention to the question of race suicide.

An exchange says Huntington wants Billy Sunday.

If it took better care of the one it has every seven days it wouldn't need Billy.

Your Uncle James McCreary seems to be imitating Gen. Grant in knowing when to keep silent—Elizabeth-town News.

Your cousin, Ollie Jeems, would do well to imitate the General, too.

The Prohibitionists of Kentucky in State convention at Lexington nominated a State ticket headed by the Rev. J. D. Redd, of Paintsville, for Governor, and Prof. M. L. Moore, of Franklin, for Lieutenant Governor.

EXPRESSION OF THANKS.

I desire to extend my warmest thanks to the hundreds of people who have already visited my store and made purchases during the big sale now on. I assure you it is a pleasure to me to be in position to give my friends and patrons the advantage of such great bargains as are now at their disposal. I feel that it will give me the right to expect their steady patronage in the future.

I will be ready next week to announce the particulars of my change in business which was the cause of this sale.

J. ISRALESKY.

MEN WANTED AT GOOD WAGES.

Skene & Richmond, who are doing the concrete work on the new Shelby creek railroad, in Pike county, want a number of men immediately to do ordinary labor. They are paying twenty cents an hour, which is $2 per day for the usual number of hours. They are furnishing good board to their men at $4 per week. Shelbyana is headquarters for this firm. This is a C. and O. station, eight miles above Pikeville.

MARRIED IN LOGAN.

Miss Fannie Simpson, of Louisa, Ky., and Mr. Batie Woods, of Ethel, W. Va., were united in marriage by Rev. Dickey Saturday, June 3rd at Logan, W. Va.

The bride wore a very lovely dress of white embroidery. Mr. Woods and his young wife will leave soon for Ohio, where they will make their future home.

NEEDFUL KNOWLEDGE.

Louisa People Should Learn to Detect the Approach of Kidney Disease.

The symptoms of kidney trouble are so unmistakable that they leave no ground for doubt. Sick kidneys excrete a thick, cloudy, offensive urine, full of sediment, irregular of passage or attended by a sensation of scalding. The back aches constantly, headaches and dizzy spells may occur and the victim is often weighed down by a feeling of languor and fatigue. Neglect these warnings and there is danger of dropsy, Bright's disease, or diabetes. Any one of these symptoms is warning enough to begin treating the kidneys at once. Delay often proves fatal.

You can use no better remedy than Doan's Kidney Pills. Tere's Louis proof:

William G. Shannon, Maple St. Louisa, Ky., says: "It gives me the greatest pleasure to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills. My kidneys annoyed me and a heavy cold which settled on these organs, caused intense pains across the small of my back. The kidney secretions passed irregularly and were scanty and filled with sediment. Learnings of Doan's Kidney Pills. I used them and the contents of 40 boxes relieved me."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co. Buffalo New York sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

A SENSATION SPRUNG.

As the result of an investigation into the death of Wm. Fry, of Wayne who died suddenly in Columbus recently, John Schoenfeld and Nicholas Delatel have been arrested, accused of drugging and robbing the unfortunate attorney.

Edmund Fry, of Huntington, a brother of the deceased has been very active in carrying on the investigation of his brother's death.

At the time of his illness when Mr. Fry sent for Judge J. M. Therman of this place, the latter suspected foul play and since that time interested friends and relatives have used every effort to hunt down those who may have been responsible for his death. —Tri-State Enterprise.

MARRIED WEDNESDAY.

Miss Rachel Marcum, a highly respected young lady of this city, and Mr. Milt Barnett, a popular school teacher of the county, were married Wednesday evening at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. Pharoah Marcum.

Notice of Commissioner's Sale.

A small tract of land lying about 300 feet from the Buchanan station on Big Sandy river, lying between the said river and C. and O. Rwy. right-of-way, and containing about one acre more or less, together with the building on said land.

TERMS: Sale will be made upon a credit of six months, purchaser to execute bond to plaintiff with approved security, with a lien retained on said property until paid in full.

R. G. MOORE,

Special Comm. L. C. C. June 9-16.

A LURID TALE.

C. H. Maupin, who is now located in Williamson, W. Va., writes the Times he is doing splendidly in that city. His bloodhounds are in great demand. They were sent to Chattahoochee, W. Va., Tuesday.

A man there tied his wife to a fence post and beat her to death because she joined a church. A posse is in pursuit of the murderer and a lynching is feared if he is captured. Maupin's dogs were sent for and immediately hit a trail that lead up through the mountains.—Portsmouth Times.

FESTIVAL AT BUSSEYVILLE.

There will be an ice cream festival at Busseyville, Saturday night, June 17.

Dave Meredith, of Donithan, returned last week from Cincinnati, with eleven head of horses which he will take to Wolfe creek to be used in hauling cross-ties.

Tom Jordan, of Martin county, has been paroled by the Prison Commissioners. He had served four years of a six-years term for manslaughter.

The barn of Mrs. Julien Roberts, of Madge, was set on fire and totally destroyed last Sunday night. Some corn, a hog and some hay were lost.

There is a very heavy locust bloom this year which is said to be a sign of a fine crop year. Last year the bloom was killed by a late freeze.

Stock Reduction Sales

At this season of the year we begin to clean up our various stocks at sacrifice prices and it is an excellent opportunity to purchase something really fine for a very small outlay. These sales are not confined to any particular part of the store but will be found all over the store where we consider stocks too heavy to carry at this season of the year.

Millinery, Suits, Coats, Skirts, Wash Dresses, Silk Dresses, Costumes, Muslin Underwear, Silk Petticoats, Waists, Fabrics, Trimmings, Footwear, Household Utensils, and a host of other items are included in these special reductions.

You will find these offer attractive and sufficiently so to make a visit to the store a paying proposition from your standpoint.

Better selections cannot be had anywhere, better merchandise is never offered and the variety of the showing only adds to the many reasons why you should avail yourself of the present special sale event in the purchase of these items.

HEZEKIAH'S GREAT REFORM

11 Chronicles 36—June 11
"Was looking on the outward appearance, but the Lord looked on the heart"—1 Samuel 16:7.

KING HEZEKIAH of Judah has a wonderful record as a man of God, a reformer, a patriot, yet he was the son of a bad father, who in turn was the son of a bad father. The alternation between good and bad for four generations illustrates the fact that although heredity has much to do with every member of our race, nevertheless, there are counter-balances in nature.

We are all members of Adam's family, and as such we are all sharers in the general weakness, mental, moral and physical, which for six thousand years has descended upon us. St. Paul refers to this, saying, "By one man's disobedience sin entered into the world, and death as the result of sin; and thus death passed upon all men, because all are sinners."—Romans 5:12.

The downward or sinful tendency in our very constitution is so strong that none is able fully to overcome it. The best that any of us can do is to set our wills in opposition to our inherited weaknesses and to fight courageously against them. The Apostle assures us that if it were possible for humanity to fully gain such a victory over its fallen self as to bring itself back to perfection, then doubtless God would have provided that way of salvation.

Hezekiah the Reformer

The King's father had introduced idolatrous worship—erecting altars and groves to the worship of Baal. God's temple was strewn with rubbish. Under the direction of the King, the Levites began a cleansing work. It required eight days to carry out the rubbish from the court, etc. Then the priests, who alone were authorized to enter into the Holy, or temple proper, were directed to cleanse the temple itself.

But as a preliminary work, before the cleansing of the court or the temple began, the King directed that the priests and the Levites sanctify themselves afresh to the Lord and His service. How appropriate! How in harmony with the words of the Prophet Isaiah, who lived at that time and who was the King's counselor—"Be ye clean, that bear the vessels of the Lord's house"—Isa. 62:11.

But let us not forget the instruction of St. Peter upon this subject. Comparing the priesthood of Israel with the institutions of the Christian church, St. Peter gives us the thought that the priests of olden times do not find their antitypes in the clergy of today, but in God's saintly or sanctified people, whether in or out of the public ministry.

Thus St. Peter says to all of the consecrated Church of Christ, "Ye are a Royal Priesthood, a Holy Nation, a peculiar people, that ye should show forth the praises of Him who has called you out of darkness into His marvelous light."

The Divine Blessing

The conclusion of the feast was a Divine blessing upon all the people, through the Priests and Levites. So there goes out a Divine blessing from the Lord's sanctified people—from all the consecrated of the household of faith—to the people in general—to their neighbors, their friends and visitors from afar. Let such be our influence among men.

In this connection let us remember the power of the tongue, of which the Apostle said, "Therewith praise we God, and therewith curse (or injure) we men." Let our tongues and all our powers be used in blessing the people as well as in praising our God.

The King wisely began his reformation at the temple and gave the priests and Levites the first share thereof. It was later that the idols of the city of Jerusalem were gathered and buried into the valley of Kedron, and it was after the fervor of the Passover occasion that the seal of the people in general rose high, and they went forth all over the land, destroying the idols, the groves of Baal, and every symbol of disloyalty to God.

And so today: Everywhere the light of our day is showing more and more of the meanness, selfishness, corruption—some of it centuries old, and some of it bred of special privilege and opportunity. The call for reform is heard on every hand, although sometimes but feeble. The proper place for reform is, as in Hezekiah's day, with the sanctification of the priests and the Levites themselves.

If the Church of Christ could but faithfully perform her responsibility, under the direction of the King, it would mean a great revival of religion.

Destroying idols.

WEST VIRGINIA NEIGHBORS.

NEWS FROM COUNTIES JUST ACROSS THE RIVER IN WEST VIRGINIA.

Wayne county will receive $3,119.71 as her apportionment of the State Road Tax Fund.

The special session of the West Virginia legislature adjourned sine die Wednesday evening, after a stormy session, the "Gold Dust" Twins winning out in the end and no primary law being passed. They did not forget their salaries and mileage, however. The mileage amounted $4,700.

Among the many West Virginians who have made good in the West, few have done so with more promptitude than A. R. York, a son of Senator John Y. York, of Wayne, and brother of Dr. J. F. York, of Huntington.

Mr. York who was admitted to the bar a comparatively short time ago, and who is still well under thirty, has been elected district attorney for Butte county, South Dakota. His home is at Belle Fourche where the great irrigation project is being put in motion.

HOME CIRCLE COLUMN.

COLUMN DEDICATED TO TIRED MOTHERS AS THEY JOIN THE HOME CIRCLE.

It's a pity that the hurrying world cannot realize more that there is something ennobling to the frank and unfeeling expression of the tenderer sentiments which stir the mind and heart—that the kindly word and the cheery clasp of the hand is like a draught of water to a thirsty soul or the shadow of a great rock in a weary land. It would redouble our joys and minimize our sorrows and scatter flowers along the highway like the footfall of the spring.

You will never have a friend if you must have one without a fault.

A woman without religion is like a flower without perfume.

It is one of the paradoxes of life that the more a woman keeps her husband in hot water the colder he grows toward her.

A man will spend $25 to buy cut flowers for his dead wife's coffin, when if he had spent twenty-five cents for a bunch of flowers for her when she was alive, she would have faded. You wait until she is dead and then get some preacher to tell how good she was.

So far as possible let all women dress beautifully; so God dresses the meadows and mountains. Let them wear pearls and diamonds if they can afford it. God hung around the neck of his word strings of diamonds and braided the black locks of the storm with the bright ribbons of the rainbow.

Don't repress the buoyant spirit of your children; half an hour of merriment around lamp and firelight of a home blots out many a care and annoyance during the day, and the best safe-guard they can take with them into the world is the unseen influence of a bright domestic circle.

Speak kindly in the morning; it lightens the cares of the day, and makes a household and all its affairs move along smoothly. Speak kindly at night, for it may be before dawn some loved one may finish his or her space of life for this world, and it will be too late to ask forgiveness.

We are often very much impressed by the woman who is doing a great and grand work for humanity, but the one who retains our respect is the true wife and mother, who presides over her home and children with a heart and head demonstrating kindness and ability, which puts the blust on the public life.

Let the parents the father as well as the mother, impress upon their young daughters, whether they are in the country school house or college, that the true woman's sphere is in the home, and the great business and educational world for women does not detract one iota from its importance of her sphere.

Put home first and foremost; for there will come a time when the home circle will be broken, when you long "for the touch of a vanished hand and the sound of a voice that still" and when your greatest pleasure will be in remembering that you did all in your power to put a song under every burden, to make each

TEACHERS WANTED FOR BLAINE GRADED SCHOOL.

Blaine is located in the central part of Lawrence county, twenty miles from Louisa, twenty miles from Paintsville, and about twenty-two miles from Sandy Hook, in the midst of a fine farming section, with two churches and Sunday schools, four stores, two blacksmith shops, saw mill, grist mill, handle milk and carding machine, a good BANK, and a lot of good folks who are interested in education. We have just established a graded school and want for principal a man who can draw people from a distance to attend school here after the rural schools have closed.

JUNE 24th, is the day fixed to hire teachers. All who desire to apply may do so by calling on or addressing G. W. KOUNS, Secretary, Blaine, Ky. my2614

COUNTRY TOWN SAYINGS.

If a dressmaker promises a woman a dress on a certain day, she'd better have it ready.

When people say they will help you in time of trouble, thank them, and don't count on it too much.

A woman's idea of art is to make a dinner so elaborate that the guests will not know how to eat it.

When a man quits abusing his rival, it is a sign he has his rival down.

As a rule, people are disappointed in compliments; they always expect more.

Your best friend has a question or two he would like to ask you, if he dared. Keep up the bars, so that he will not dare.

Nearly every man thinks he has done a great deal for the town in which he lives, if he has not actually made it famous.

Speaking of total wrecks, ever notice a dinner table after the guests have all had their fill, and pushed back to talk?

FOREMOST CLOTHIERS SINCE 1880.

Young Men

As a rule agree on the STYLE of their clothes; but they disagree generally on patterns & colors.

Therefore, we must & do provide such a profusion of different patterns & colorings & models, too, that each may have INDIVIDUALITY in his clothes without sameness or variation from the modish fashions for young men.

Four prices: $15 $18 $20 $22 & exceptional values at each figure.

Fully hand tailored & guaranteed satisfactory.

Select patterns of tans & grays &, of course, blue seves: Two and three button coats, (mostly 2), long graceful lapels, perfect back lines, shoulders and collar; peg trousers, with 3-inch turn up at bottom—every little thing a man likes in his clothes.

Wonderful Praise Accorded Peruna the Household Remedy

Mrs. Maria Goertz, Oriana, Ohio, writes:

"My husband, children and myself have used your medicine, and we always keep them in the house in case of necessity. I was restored to health by this medicine, and Dr. Hartman's valuable advice and books. People ask about me from different places, and are surprised that I can do all of my housework alone, and that I was cured by the doctor of chronic catarrh. My husband was cured of asthma, my daughter of carache and catarrh of the stomach, and my son of catarrh of the throat. When I was sick I weighed 100 pounds; now I weigh 140.

"I have regained my health again, and I cannot thank you enough for your advice. May God give you a long life and bless your work."
